It is to be hoped that the Pennsylvania election may go in favor of the democratic candidate. It is expected that the Americans, having no candidate for Governor in the State, will coalesce with the democrats, and thus rescue the State from Fremontism. Such is the conservative spirit of the party in all sections of the Union.

We have purposely delayed the publication of this paper in order to get the telegraphic news respecting the election.

To ask a newspaper proprietor how many subscribers he has is a very impertinent question, and the one who asks it ought not to have a respectful answer, to say the least of it.

We have just learned that the Conference of the M. E. Church, which convened last week in Huntsville, has sent the Rev. F. A. Kimball back to our town to fill the Methodist pulpit for the next twelve months. We congratulate the Church, and the town, in having so good a man to return to our midst.

There is to be a footrace in Nashville on next Monday. The bet is one thousand dollars.

The thanks of this office are due to the young ladies who furnished us with those nice peaches yesterday.

We notice with great pleasure that a portion of our citizens have organized a Historical Society for mutual improvement. It is founded upon a good basis, and ought to be a source of general interest and concern to our town. Much credit attaches itself to those who have been instrumental in getting such a design on foot, as it promises to be productive of much good. The Society meets every Monday night at the C. P. Church, and the exercise is conducted by the Rev. Dr. Bain. Doors open to visitors.

Attention is directed to the advertisement of Messrs. Handly & Henderson. They have a nice variety of goods, and are attentive to the calls of customers. They are desirous of purchasing a large quantity of fur skins, for which they will pay a good price in goods at regular cash figures.

Those desiring articles in the Stove and Tin Ware line will remember that Mr. John F. Vaughan keeps constantly on hand, and will manufacture to order any article which may be wanted. He has just commenced in business, yet, he does not lack experience, and will be found capable of complying with any demand. Those who have commenced in business know to what extent encouragement cheers the prospect of a beginner, giving strength to his arm and merit to his motives. Give John a call.

The winter, it seems, has at last set in. Thick coats and warm fires are comfortable. Winter is a good season. Long nights and good books are companionable friends, and should be appreciated by both the old and young—more particularly, however, by the young. Standing, as they are, upon the threshold of life, they ought to call every energy into action that they may be ready for the coming of its countless responsibilities. When we look abroad upon the distorted and distracted face of society, where bigotry and corruption stalk boldly abroad in open day, and where vice is striving for ascendancy over virtue, the heart turns with interest and hope to the youth of our land, that they may grow up wise and virtuous, and prove a bulwark of defence to the beloved institutions of our land. Be careful, boys, in spending your long winter evenings that are coming on, and endeavor to lay up something that will be useful to yourselves and to the country in the dark days of its history, whose advent seems even now to be foreshadowed in the events of the political world around us.

Our fellow-townsmen, A. S. Colyar, Esq., is now filling a list of appointments in the counties of Bedford, Marshall, Lincoln and Giles. He is zealous in his advocacy of Mr. Fillmore, and, being well posted, and an able speaker, his services will be of inestimable value to the American cause. His appointments continue to the first of November.

New Orleans Store.
The lovers of variety will find almost anything they wish at this well known stand, and just now the epicurean will find a most excellent article of oysters. Although we like for our word to be respected for veracity, still we do not ask anybody to take our word alone for this assertion; go and see for yourselves, and we will insure it, that you will be delighted with the best luxury of the season. Monsieur Jourdan is always up to the times in everything that proposes to gratify his numerous customers; he never fears a little risk if it offers attraction to the lovers of variety. A man of such enterprise must and will receive a merited support. We rejoice to see merit receive its reward. Monsieur Jourdan is a friend to the press, which is still another secret of his success.

In the closing of an article in yesterday's Patriot in relation to the election returns we find the following postscript, written at a late hour:

"P. S.—11 P. M.—The latest despatches render it not unlikely that Pennsylvania, Indiana and Ohio have gone adversely to Buchanan. If this should be the issue, his case is past all remedy."

PRETTY BOLD.—The following is taken from the Nashville Gazette of yesterday. It affords still another evidence of Irish impudence:

"We are informed by reliable gentlemen that in the new Methodist church in Edgefield last Sunday night, after the close of the sermon, and while the congregation were kneeling in prayer, an Irishman deliberately walked up to the altar, dipped his hand in the pitcher of water, and kneeling, crossed himself in the usual Catholic form. After the conclusion of the services he was asked why he conducted himself in such a manner in a Protestant church. He replied that the Catholics and Democrats had determined to rule the country, and he was merely giving the Protestants an example. The next moment he was feeling upwards for the ground. Such conduct and language deserve just such punishment as they received."

The Georgetown Times says the rice harvest is progressing rapidly with the favorable dry weather for some weeks past, and the crop is being gathered in good condition. An average crop will be made notwithstanding the freshets, which were so late as not to do much damage.

The early frosts this season have greatly injured the tobacco crop in Tennessee, Kentucky, Missouri and Virginia. It has been cut short at least one-half.

An election took place in Kansas on the 1st inst., for members of the Legislature.

Over sixty thousand barrels of lager beer will be manufactured this year in Milwaukee alone.

South Carolina is the only State in the Union in which the people do not choose electors for President and Vice President. The Charleston papers state that Gov. Adams will convene the Legislature on the first Monday in November next to choose electors for the State.

Hon. Theodore Freelinghuysen has unequivocally declared himself for Millard Fillmore.

A wedding came off in Illinois the other day. The bride was fourteen years of age, and the bridegroom seventy-one. There was present at the nuptial ceremony a daughter of the old gentleman as old as the bride's mother.

The arms of a pretty girl, says an exchange, wound tight around your neck, has been discovered to be an infallible remedy in case of sore throat. It beats pepper tea all hollow.

"IF THERE BE THOSE EITHER NORTH OR SOUTH WHO DESIRE AN ADMINISTRATION FOR THE NORTH AS AGAINST THE SOUTH, OR THE SOUTH AGAINST THE NORTH, THEY ARE NOT THE MEN WHO SHOULD GIVE THEIR SUFFRAGES FOR ME; FOR MY OWN PART, I KNOW ONLY MY COUNTRY, MY WHOLE COUNTRY, AND NOTHING BUT MY COUNTRY!"—MILLARD FILLMORE.

C. M. FARMER,
AT HIS OLD STAND, SOUTH-EAST CORNER OF THE SQUARE, Winchester, Tennessee.

Very thankful for the liberal patronage heretofore extended to him, keeps on hand and will furnish any article in cabinet furniture at the shortest notice, either of his own manufacture or of factory work. He is determined that no one shall undersell him or give more inducements for custom. Any article of his own make that does not prove to be such as he sells it for may be returned on his hands.

COFFINS FURNISHED
at all times as cheap as any other person will furnish them, and on the shortest notice, and sent to any portion of the country without extra charge. His house that he keeps for such purposes is well known and cannot be surpassed in point of gentleness in any country.

JOHN F. VAUGHAN,
(SUCCESSOR TO S. A. LOCKHART)
Wholesale & Retail Manufacturer of Tin, Sheet Iron, Copper and Brass Wares, and Dealer in Cooking and Warming Stoves, of every variety and pattern, Castings, Pumps, Brass Kettles, Odd Tids, Coffee Mills, Wagon Boxes.
And in fact every variety of the above description of articles, which will be manufactured to order on the shortest notice. Repairing, Roofing, Guttering, &c., will be done upon moderate terms. Having invested my entire capital in the purchase of the establishment formerly owned by S. A. Lockhart, I will be compelled to do a Cash Business, thereby giving better bargains than can be given upon the credit system. All accounts due when made. Having had four years experience in the business, I hope, and believe, by close application, to merit and receive a liberal share of public patronage, fully assured that I can and will give entire satisfaction.
Winchester, Sept. 19, '56—t J. F. V.

TO THE PUBLIC.
FROM the above it will be seen that I have disposed of my entire establishment to Mr. John F. Vaughan, who is fully capable, willing and competent to discharge the duties incumbent upon a proprietor, and I earnestly solicit for him the confidence and support of all my former patrons, and as many new ones as may find it to their interest to extend him a helping hand. All those indebted to me either by note or account are notified and requested to come forward and make immediate settlement. I hope the propriety of this will be recognized, and that they will come instantly forward without putting me to the necessity of placing their accounts in the hands of an officer.

As all my social and business ties will soon close with this community, perhaps forever, and as I intend to make my home in a new community, I return my heartfelt thanks to those who have been so kind in encouraging my efforts, and rendering themselves FRIENDS INDEED, by favoring me with their patronage, and performing sundry other little kindnesses that will always be remembered with feelings of pride and satisfaction.

EXCELSIOR CORN & COB MILL

THE FARMING COMMUNITY, having become generally convinced of the great advantage of grinding Corn and Cob for Stock, the only question to be considered is which is the best Mill for the purpose? In all the east and west heretofore offered, a very serious objection has existed, a want of durability, or liability soon to wear out. In the "Excelsior" that objection is removed: The grinding surface, which is the only part liable to wear out, consists of rings and castings separate from the mill, and when worn out can be removed and replaced at a cost of three dollars. This mill is strong, simple in construction, easily put up, and can be moved from place to place without difficulty, and will crush 15 bushels per hour of corn and cob for stock, and grand meal for family use. The "Excelsior" was awarded the highest premium at the great trial Agricultural Expositions in Nashville on the 4th, 5th and 6th of June, 1856, and in a contest with the Improved "Little Giant" in Nashville, August 30th, 1856, the "Excelsior" was awarded a silver cup. This Mill is furnished all complete with two pairs of grinding rings which makes it equal to two mills, at the low price of fifty dollars. This Mill stands upon legs, is put up in a short time by any ordinary farm hand, and unlike all other Corn Crushers discharges the meal from one point directly into a half bushel. Persons wanting the above Mill, or wishing to purchase County Rights will please address the undersigned, and obtain a circular with full information.

Anna, aged about thirty-nine years, and her child Francis, aged about six months; Dick, aged about thirty-seven years, a fair boot and shoe maker; Richard, aged about eighteen years, a good coarse shoe maker; Austin, aged about thirty-two years, a pretty fair and handy mechanic about a farm; Barbes, aged about eighteen years, a field hand; Doctor Rucker, aged about thirteen years, a house boy.

This is the same tract of which William Duncan died seized and possessed, and it is remarkable for its beauty, fertility and health, and its charming and never failing Spring of free stone Water. The fences can be so made and arranged as to furnish water for stock in every field of the tract. The grave-yard of the family, situated upon the tract, and about forty feet square, will be excepted from the sale.

And at the same time and place, and upon the same terms, I will sell a small tract of Land, lying West of the mouth of Rock Creek, and across the river from the above described tract, and about a mile from the nearest point thereof.

And on Monday, the 29th of September, 1856, at the late residence of Mrs. Sarah Duncan on the tract above described, I will sell at public sale to the highest bidder, upon a credit of one year, the purchaser giving bond and good and approved security, to secure the payment of the purchase money, the residue of the personal estate of William Duncan, deceased, consisting of horses, farming utensils, cattle, &c., &c.

These sales are made by virtue of the power vested in me by the will of William Duncan, deceased.

J. G. McCUTCHEON,

To those who value their Sight
We would say: If you find your eyesight failing, or if you use spectacles, do not delay availing yourselves of the opportunity of procuring a pair of the justly celebrated Brazilian Pebble Spectacles, adapted to your eye, and selected by a person who understands the business. They do not tire the eye when reading and will preserve vision unimpaired for years longer than any other glass is properly selected to suit the eye. There is no straining of the eye while using them, as in most other spectacles. The shape of the surface, (concave convex) the large size and the fineness and clearness of the glass are the combined qualities which no other glasses possess, and which render them superior to all others. Many persons might have good eyesight for ten or fifteen years longer by using these glasses than the common glasses which in the end often do more harm than good. Numerous testimonials can be produced from the best citizens of Nashville. For sale by

THE WINCHESTER SPRINGS FOR SALE.

By virtue of a decree of the Chancery Court at Winchester, Tenn., pronounced August term, A. T. 1856, in the case Thomas Short, Adm'r of L. P. Sims, and versus the heirs and creditors of said Sims, I will on first Monday in November next, before the court house door in Winchester, Tenn., sell on a credit of one and two years, a tract of land of fifty-four acres, on which is situated the Winchester Springs, formerly kept by L. P. Sims, five miles Northwest of Winchester, and four miles South of the Nashville & Chattanooga Railroad. This could be made the most attractive watering place in Tennessee—easy of access from all the South and Southwest. There are in abundance White and Red Sulphur, Chalybeate, Free and Limestone Water—situated within a mile and a quarter of Elk River, which abounds in fish, and especially the trout, affording amusement to a majority of those attending watering places—just on the edge of the barrens, where those who are disposed can have a wide field for hunting. There are at this time sufficient improvements on the place to accommodate two hundred boarders.

Also, at same time and place I will sell one other tract adjoining above described tract containing one hundred and sixteen acres. Also, one other tract containing two hundred and seventy acres. Also, one other tract containing one hundred and three acres, the deeds for which will be shown on day of sale.
I will, at same time, sell on a credit of twelve months, what is called the Ward tracts, one containing ten and the other twenty acres. Also, a small tract, called the Aldrich tract. Also a tract of land in Grundy county, called the George Floyd tract. The deeds and boundaries to all of said lands will be shown on day of sale. The purchasers will be required to give bond and good security and a lien retained on the land until purchase money is paid.
